At His Feet: A 5-Day Devotional Series on Intimacy with Jesus

Raising people who sit at His feet and shine in the world.

DR. ROSELYNE AARON

DEVOTIONAL

The Invitation

Imagine a place where you finds peace always, where the noise of the world fades away, and your soul finally has room to breathe in His grace; it's at His feet.

This is not just a study; it's an invitation. Over the next five days, you'll journey through what it truly means to sit at the feet of Jesus, to hear His word, to be transformed by His presence, and to walk away carrying His fragrance into every part of your life.

Each day will reveal a new layer of this posture. It's not a race; it's a forever walk with the Word Himself.

So, make the time, set aside the rush, and the urgency. Your life is about to be transformed by the power of God's Word. Let's begin this journey together — at His feet.

Let's go!

Sitting at the feet of Jesus

Luke 10:39 And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word. NKJV

The word "sit" is deeply significant. It speaks of posture, not just of the body, but of the heart. To sit is to rest. It's the quiet surrender that says, "Lord, I'm here to listen."

Our generation may very well be the most distracted in human history. Acknowledging this fact is vital, for as we draw near to sit at the feet of Jesus, we must consciously set aside every distraction that clouds our ability to listen to Him truly.

So, how do we sit at His feet? The most powerful means is through reading and meditating on the Scriptures.

Reading your Bible is hearing what God has said. Meditation is yielding your heart to hear what God is saying to you now. Both are non-negotiable for the believer.

Think of it this way — reading the Word is meal prep; meditation is eating.

You can prep all day, but growth doesn't happen in the kitchen, it happens at the table. You don't mature by meal prepping; you mature by eating.

No matter how many chapters you read in a day, it's still preparation. So take time to sit, chew, and let the Word fill you. Stay with it until your heart overflows with light — because once light comes, *confession follows. And you are what you say.

This isn't my idea; the Scripture says so in Joshua 1:8: "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."

If all you know is what God said and not what He is saying now, you maybe out of alignment with God.

Look at Abraham in Genesis 22. Had he stopped listening after the first instruction, he would have sacrificed Isaac — birthing a generation given to human sacrifice. But only one Son was ever ordained to die: Jesus Christ, the Son of the Living God.

Or think of Samuel in 1 Samuel 16. He saw Eliab and thought, "Surely the Lord's anointed is before Him!" But God interrupted his assumptions and said,

"Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have refused him. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart."

Then God directed him to David, the forgotten one, saying, “Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!”

That’s what happens when you meditate on His word; *you hear what God is saying now.

So, as you quiet your mind and take your place at His feet, remember this is only the beginning. Every moment you choose to pause, to read, to meditate, you are saying “Yes” to deeper intimacy with Jesus.

There’s so much more the Lord desires to reveal to you about His heart, His ways, and His voice. These next five days are not just another devotional plan; they are an invitation to encounter the living Word Himself.

With every moment of sitting with the Lord, you’ll find your soul anchored more firmly in His presence.

01

You read this far! Thank you for investing in your walk with Jesus.

Now, lean in. Jesus is wooing you closer. One day at a time, one word at a time. The series begins now.

YOU ARE GROWING

Sit with these Scriptures

01 LUKE 10:38–42

The posture of sitting to hear His Word

02 HEBREWS 4:12

The living, powerful Word that transforms

03 EPHESIANS 6:18

Empowered by the Spirit through prayer

04 1 SAMUEL 17:45

True victory through faith in God's Word

05 JOHN 6:63

God's word is spirit and life

At His Feet is Life

John 6:63 The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. NLT

Sitting at the feet of Jesus requires giving your complete attention to His Word. Listening while you're on the move is good, but it cannot replace resting in His presence and allowing His voice to fill your heart.

Those who truly abide in His Word, which is spirit and life (John 6:63), experience a powerful transformation: they shed the world's ways and embrace the heart of God.

At His feet, being ordinary ceases to exist. You're infused with divine power (Hebrews 4:12) and heavenly capacity (Ephesians 6:18). You become like David, who didn't face Goliath with weapons of flesh but with the Word he had hidden in his heart (1 Samuel 17:45).

The world may measure strength by motion, but Heaven measures it by stillness. By how well you listen, and let the Word of life work in you. This is true success.

When you sit at His feet, you become a living testimony that the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty through God (2 Corinthians 10:4).

So today, don't rush to leave. Resist the noise around you. Stay for those extra ten or fifteen minutes, because sitting at His feet is where life truly begins.

Reflection

1. What keeps you from sitting still at Jesus' feet; distraction, busyness, or fear of "wasting time"?

2. How does your life reflect that His Word is your source of strength and life?

3. What is one way you can create more "at His feet" moments this week?

Let's Pray

Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask that You grip my heart until everything in me delights in doing Your will. Teach me to sit still in Your presence and to find my life in Your Word.

Let every other voice fade until Yours alone fills my heart. Breathe life into me again through Your Word, and strengthen me to live from this place of stillness and surrender.

Thank You for the gift of Your presence. I choose to sit, to listen, and to live — at Your feet. Amen.

HEY, I'M ROSELYNE

I'd love to hear from you! Share how this devotional blessed you. And pass it on! Send it to a friend or loved one, and invite them to subscribe here.

Email us: dr.roselyneaaron@gmail.com

Follow us: Gathering of Daughters

Thank You!