GATHERING OF DAUGHTERS DEVOTIONAL

Purpose from Your Creator's Perspective

Many believers today are more confused than enlightened when it comes to this big theme called purpose. This devotional is designed to shift our eyes away from human opinions and well-intended philosophies, and back to the living Word of God.

Scriptures

Isaiah 43:7 - "Everyone who is called by My name, whom I have created for My glory; I have formed him, yes, I have made him."

Isaiah 43:10 - "You are My witnesses," says the LORD, "And My servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me there was no God formed, nor shall there be after Me."

Isaiah 43:21 - "This people I have formed for Myself; they shall declare My praise."

These scriptures spell out exactly why God made you:

- To glorify Him
- To know Him intimately and trust Him fully
- To make Him known to the world around you

A Few Questions for You

1. Is your life glorifying Jesus every day?

2. Are you walking intimately with the Lord and trusting Him, regardless of life's distractions?

3. Are you making Jesus known to those around you?

"Your purpose and calling are not destinations you arrive at, they are a journey. Think of purpose as the journey and calling as the unique vehicle God has designed to carry you through it.

Important Thought

All believers share the same journey (purpose), but we walk on different paths (experiences) and use different vehicles (callings).

If your answer is yes to all three, here's some liberating news: Girl, you are not weird, you are not "old school"—you are walking in purpose right where you are.

If your answer is yes to one and no to the others, the Lord is calling you to come up higher. Don't procrastinate. Don't settle for half-heartedness. Don't coast through life or struggle aimlessly. You were designed to walk fully in purpose. This is your charge: "Labor fervently in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God" (Colossians 4:12).

If your answer is no to all three, shake off guilt and condemnation. That is not from your loving Father! He sent this word to you for a reason: "Daughter, come home and come close. Distance hinders communion. I want to teach you My ways so you can live according to My truth. I want to purify your heart so you can glorify Me"(Psalm 86:11).

Wherever you find yourself today, this is your wake up call to do what the Word says. Starting this week and all the days of your life, choose to:

1. Know and trust Jesus through consistent fellowship in His Word, intentional worship, and prayer.

2. Reveal Jesus by proclaiming the Good News, keeping His praises on your lips, and living in a way God considers worthy (1 Thessalonians 2:12).

3. Glorify Jesus by living to please Him, bearing the fruits of the Holy Spirit in your daily conduct (Colossians 1:10; Galatians 5:22).

> You will not discover your unique vehicle until you start walking in your journey. In other words, your calling is revealed as you boldly live out your purpose.

Let's Pray

Precious Holy Spirit, thank You for Your Word to me today. Help me to walk fully and boldly in my purpose, and as I do, open my eyes to see the unique calling You've placed on my life.

Grant me grace for consistent fellowship in the Word, worship, and prayer. Give me courage to reveal Your nature in my daily walk, and empower me to live a life pleasing to You—in both words and deeds.

I love You, Lord, and I thank You. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Day 3: Isaiah 43:21 – Made to Declare His Praise

Day 4: Colossians 4:12 – Standing Perfect in His Will

Reflection

1. Which of the three questions (glorifying, knowing/trusting, revealing Jesus) do I need to lean into more deeply this week?

2. Am I treating purpose as a destination or embracing it as a daily journey with Jesus?

3. How can I practically reveal Jesus in my relationships, work, or community this week?
